Morning and afternoon sessions available for all programs. All sessions are 75 minutes, Monday through Friday in two-week building blocks. If in-person attendance becomes impossible because of a government order, sessions will proceed online, as scheduled. Cost is based on $25 per day for full attendance per two-week block. No credit and/or prorating will be given for less than full attendance, for any reason. Discounts are available for registering for all two-week sessions within a program, in advance. Payment for all sessions is due in advance.

FAQ

- We need to skip one of the two-week blocks. No problem! We'll tell you what you're missing so you can practice on your own and avoid falling behind.
- My child can already decode, we're more interested in improving reading fluency. Great! 1-to-1 tutoring is the quickest way to improve reading fluency.
- I want to make sure the time works for me. Us too! Pick your preferred time when you register on our site and we will try to make it happen!
